GOD'S ATTRIBUTES

Hungry?

- When you've felt hungry in life, how did you try to satisfy that hunger?

- What do you think Hulvey is saying about how we should respond to world hunger—not just physically, but spiritually?

- How do you think serving others, especially those who are struggling, reflects the heart of God?

- How can you show mercy to those who are spiritually hungry, offering them the message of Christ's love and forgiveness?

- Do you think people in the world experience spiritual hunger in a similar way? How might they try to fill that need?

- How does this song challenge you to think about serving others in both physical and spiritual ways?

- How can we serve those who are spiritually hungry and thirsty, offering them Jesus as the ultimate source of life?

Isaiah 58:6-7

- What does God desire more than ritualistic acts of worship?

- What are some things that people commonly look to for fulfillment that don't truly satisfy?

- How can you make a difference in addressing spiritual hunger around you?

Micah 6:8

- What does it mean to "act justly" in your everyday life?

- How can we "loose the chains of injustice" in practical ways?

- When you think of world hunger, how do you see it affecting people spiritually? What do you think they are truly longing for?

- What does this passage teach us about serving others?

- How can you show mercy to others, especially those who don't deserve it?

- What are some small steps you can take to feed the hungry or help the oppressed in your community?

- How can we apply these teachings to our lives today?

- How does walking humbly with God affect the way you serve others?

- How does God call us to live out our faith beyond Sunday services?

World Hunger

- How does this song reflect God's heart for both the physical and spiritual needs of the world?

- In what practical ways can you serve others in your school, church, or community?

- What is one thing you can do this week to show mercy and justice in your community?

- How can we "loose the chains of spiritual injustice" by sharing the Gospel and helping others find spiritual fulfillment in Christ?
